Stretching one's legs

idiom: to stand or walk after sitting for a long time (Cambridge Dictionary).

Depending on your background, you may be familiar with a certain expression that parents from certain parts of the world use, 'If I stand up from this chair, you will see what will happen to you.' In French, it would be something along the lines of, 'Si je me lève de cette chaise, tu vas me sentir.'

This, dear reader, is a threat that sends shockwaves of fear down every child's spine, signaling to them that whatever they are doing wrong must be quickly adjusted and made right before their parent's hand, not accidentally whatsoever, makes its way to a correction rod, and both—the hand, armed with the whip—swiftly collide with their backside.

So, when YHWH says that He is 'stretching His legs' what chance do you have, California? What chance do you have, Hollywood? Do you know what happens when you succeed, by your defiance, to get the Almighty God to stand up just to take care of you?

'Now my view zooms out and I see the map of the world, as if flat on a screen before me. Out of the map, the whole state of California is on fire. It is being consumed. The fire is burning up the paper on which the map is drawn until the entire state is burned and no more. Now I am looking at the same map of the world, only that there is a hole where California used to be.' - '7 Times Over In Half The Time', To Hollywood [Oct. 29, 2024]

BREAKING NEWS, January 09, 2025.

The main headline reads: "Los Angeles fires burn 10,000 structures as new blaze spreads". Below the headline is a sub-headline: "Third blaze breaks out in West Hills as authorities battle to bring existing fires under control."

‘Hollywood, I will burn you to the ground. I will destroy you. You disrespect My prophecy and you profane My word. Tell them, My child, that I will burn them to the ground. I will destroy them until there is nothing left.’

These are the first five sentences in YHWH's prophecy to 'the entire Hollywood industry, from the A-list actor to the make-up artist, the office intern who makes everyone's coffee, and the truck driver,' proclaimed on October 29, 2024.

Read the full prophecy here: '7 Times Over In Half The Time', To Hollywood.

In that proclamation, Yah informed Hollywood that the judgment He had prophesied against them would be unleashed with seven times more intensity and in half the time.

Lo and behold, less than three months later, starting January 07, 2025, just after the golden globes, things began to be not-so-golden, or dare I say—excessively golden in every way that no one could have anticipated, for the golden fires of God's wrath decided to join the chat.

—NEWS ARTICLE: ‘...Before long, the City of Angels was ablaze and now, less than 48 hours on from the initial spark, the wildfire is on track to be the most destructive blaze ever, having ripped through the glitzy celebrity mansions and causing an estimated $48 billion in damage.

LA Fire Chief Kristin Crowley believes the fire started accidentally in a back garden around 10am Tuesday morning. She told reporters the fire is 'spreading at a speed beyond anything we've seen... it's now unlike anything we have seen in our lifetime.' - DailyMail [Jan. 9, 2025].

‘But why would Yah give them such a sentence?’ I hear you ask.

'You take My prophet's scrolls, you print them so that you can defecate on them. You take it to wipe your menstrual blood with them. You take My words to burn, tear, and eat them. It is on the printed papers of My prophecies that you sacrifice children and sing and dance to Satan,' says YHWH. I will destroy you through and through.' - '7 Times Over In Half The Time', To Hollywood [Oct. 29, 2024]

Thousands of people—including over a dozen celebrities—have watched their homes burn, and others have lost their lives, with over 130,000 of them (and counting) still evacuating the town. When Yah said He would burn them to the ground, He did not lie.

For example, here is a before and after of actor John Goodman's home in Los Angeles:

UPDATE ON JAN. 11, 2025

Milo Ventimiglia, who has a 9-month pregnant wife, stood in the ashes of his home to give an interview about their loss, comparing it to the situation of the TV role that made him into the star he is today, 'Jack Pearson' in the series 'This Is Us', whose premise was that he died hours after his family home burned to the ground.

But wait—what is interesting is that the actress who shares the lead role in the same series, Mandy Moore, whose stardom was similarly spearheaded by her role as 'Rebecca Pearson' in 'This Is Us' whose premise was that of a single mother who had to raise triplets after the loss of her husband [Jack] hours after their dream home was ravaged by a fire, also saw grave damages to her home and had to evacuate.

In case you ever wondered or never realised, God—YHWH, is a poet and we are reading one of His most elaborate purple proses right now—in real-time.

Moreover, about Mandy Moore, after sharing the news on her Instagram account, she went ahead to ask her millions of followers to 'kindly F off' when they criticised her for sharing a GoFundMe campaign for her own family to which she asked people to donate, considering her obvious financial privilege.

Mandy Moore told her followers to 'F Off' after she was criticized for asking for donations for her relatives left homeless by the LA fires.

Mandy is not the only celebrity who cannot read the room, many of them are exposing their extreme narcissism, greed and lack of basic human decencies. We are seeing them going on late-night TV shows to pretend-cry about the fires whilst wearing $2000 dresses, promoting their business' winter sales in the midst of chaos, proudly bragging about donating $2500 for meals whilst having net worths of hundreds of millions, and SO much more.

This comes hours after YHWH said the following:

‘You lying, backbiting and degenerate PR agents. Within a few years, your job will not be needed anymore. Extreme exposures are coming this year, I, YHWH Elohim, will do this. There shall be no public image left to uphold, no lies left to tell.’ - Hollywood's Death Row [Jan. 08, 2025]

It turns out such situations are what will expose these celebrities' true nature because people tend to lose their facade when under pressure. Since these people are so incredibly obsessed with themselves, their 'fans', and their public personas, they will not be able to keep quiet and stay in the shadows. All the masks will fall. And to make the point clear once more:

‘After that, I saw a TV screen with a big red "Breaking news" banner at the top and bottom of it. The word "breaking news" was scrolling horizontally across the bar. Then I saw that the day went by until night came, and the bar had not disappeared. The news reporter had not stood up, there had not been a pause. Until the night went by and the morning came, and still, news continued to break every day 24/7 with no end in sight.

The Lord said:

"The breaking news banner will never come down until they are completely destroyed. They will all be exposed. They who do such wicked things will all die - there are only a few that I will spare for My own reasons, but they will wish they had died instead. Repent now before it is your face on the perpetual breaking news banner that I will set up on the world's TV screens.” - The Breaking News Of Iniquity [Jul. 24, 2024]

Back to Yah's poetry—did I mention that the Golden Globes took it upon themselves to explicitly and openly blaspheme and attempt to mock God? Whilst I will not go into the details of the so-called joke, I will show you what was on the screen during the joke, that clearly explains it.

Golden Globes, January 05, 2025:

Los Angeles, January 07, 2025:

'But did Mario Lopez also get affected by the fires?' I hear you ask. The answer is: YES, he did, being amongst those who had to evacuate town. If specific news come out about his particular home situation, I shall update it here.

As I said: POETRY.

'Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.' - Galatians 6:7. And this, dear reader, is the essence of our God's poetry.

Meanwhile, YHWH is confirming that His word is eternal and is showing first-hand that when He says something, He means it, and His love and protection over His own people will never fail. Whilst the wicked will burn, our Father will protect us. Whilst all of pharao's first-borns die, those who have the blood of the lamb—Yahshua, covering their home, will survive.

‘A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it shall not come near you:

Only with your eyes shall you look, and see the reward of the wicked.

Because you have made the Lord, who is my refuge, even the Most High, your dwelling place, No evil shall befall you, nor shall any plague come near your dwelling; For He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways. In their hands they shall bear you up, lest you dash your foot against a stone. You shall tread upon the lion and the cobra, the young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot.’ - Psalm 91:7-13.

If this Bible verse were a physical picture, it would be that of this house above. When asked about the sturdiness of the home and how the home kept standing, the owner's first response was: 'It's a miracle – miracles never cease.'

Then, he went on to explain that he had used 'stucco and stone with a fireproof roof,' and that is what the comment section (standing at 900 comments now) keeps talking about—obviously NOT the mention of a miracle.

Except, they are choosing to miss another detail in the report:

'"[The contractor] was watching the news reports and saw my neighbour's house going down and told me, "It looks like your house is going, too," Steiner [the owner] recalled.' - New York Post [Jan. 10, 2025]

So if the one who built the house is citing the neighbour's house burning as a direct deduction that the owner's house also burning, then we can safely say that the neighbour's house is very likely made of the same materials, and thus, its fate would be a direct indication of the house next to it. If it were a stranger who had made this deduction it would be different because it is what one would easily expect, but it is the contractor who built the house—and also likely built the neighbour's house (a common situation), which is why he could take it as a reference –who did.

He [The contractor] knew the house was doomed, but Lo and behold, as the owner himself so appropriately said, 'It's a miracle – miracles never cease.'

All of what I said about this house was just my logical thought process, but now YHWH has confirmed to me and asked me to publish that, 'It is indeed a miracle, the work of My hands, says YHWH.' And all I have to answer to this is 'Amen!'

Again, as I said: POETRY. Poetry, whose legal name in justice.

That's not all—Babylon would not be Babylon if it didn't Babylon even in the midst of 'apocalyptic fires', the term coined for these events of Yah's perfect judgment. You can't make this up:

A new phenomenon called 'wildfire hook-ups' is taking off all over town. One single friend staying at L'Ermitage in Beverly Hills said messages on her Raya app – an exclusive dating app for celebrities – were 'off the charts'. She ended up having a drink with a famous TV host in the hotel bar.

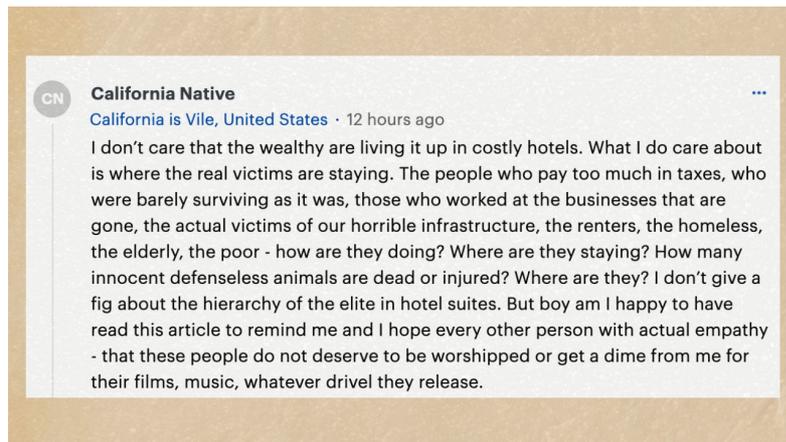

'There have been a lot of hook-ups' my Beverly Hills source said.

'People are sad. They are drinking. They have a lovely hotel room. There's a lot of "comforting" going on. Rome may be burning but that's no excuse not to have hot sex and a great martini.'

'Half the town is in flames; thousands of homes are in ashes, including schools, daycares, malls, and restaurants, that will likely lead to even greater job losses, increased financial distress, and record-breaking homelessness; dozens of people have died and over 130,000 have been displaced and the fires are still going; we are being judged, but let's turn this God-ordained calamity into the golden opportunity to make it about ourselves, ramp up our sins and fornicate some more because the original sins that yielded us this judgment were clearly not enough.' - Hollywood.

I have no comment to make, for my comments perfectly align with YHWH's +7 prophecies against Hollywood and California, published right here at The Fruit Factory.

However, one of the commenters under that article managed to have some basic human decency, whose thoughts Yah has allowed me to share here:

The answer to this person's questions is: all those you have cited and asked about are equally under judgment because they support and promote the sin of which the land is guilty. The only way to make it out of judgment, like the miraculous act the owner of the house above experienced, is to REPENT, turn away from sin and everything related to it, and plead at Yah's feet for forgiveness, protection and preservation.

Realising that 'these people do not deserve to be worshipped or get a dime from me for their films, music, whatever drivel they release,' would be a good start. Be rest assured that none of them will have the last laugh. Yah is only stretching His legs, He cannot be mocked and in His words: 'no one will escape.'

END OF UPDATE ON JAN. 11, 2025.

Another example is the current state of one of the most famous Hollywood streets, the pitch-perfect 'I was in Hollywood' postcard location, Sunset Boulevard.

–NEWS ARTICLE: 'Sunset Boulevard in ruins.

Sunset Boulevard, the famous thoroughfare in Los Angeles, has been reduced to ruins by the Palisades fire, which has so far scorched 17,000 acres and continues to spread.

Supermarkets, banks and cafes have been decimated along the city's iconic strip in the Pacific Palisades.

Michael Payton, store director of the nearby Erewhon, said while the upscale supermarket had survived, the area had been ravaged.

"The whole Palisades is done," he told the Los Angeles Times, "The whole town is done. This is complete devastation..." - The Telegraph [Jan. 09, 2025]

However, what is more interesting is the fact that this is only a taste of Yah's judgment because what He said He would ultimately do to them, in terms of being burned to ashes, is about four hundred times worse than this.

'For the things you do to children, Hollywood, I will rain down 7 times the amount of Sulphur I rained down on Sodom and Gomorrah.' - '7 Times Over In Half The Time', To Hollywood [Oct. 29, 2024]

So despite us seeing devastating events like this, we know that YHWH has not even begun to judge them yet. In those days, headlines like this will be a... GIFT!

'One of most destructive natural disasters in LA history'

Kristin Crowley, LA's fire chief, has laid bare the devastation caused by the ongoing wildfires.

"Preliminary reports expect the damage to destroyed structures to be in the thousands," she said at a press conference on Thursday.

"It is safe to say the Palisades fire was one of the most destructive natural disasters in the history of Los Angeles."

Thousands of homes destroyed

Thousands of homes have been destroyed in the ongoing wildfires, according to the Los Angeles fire department.

More than 1,000 homes had been lost to the Palisades fire and around 1,000 in the Eaton fire, officials said on Thursday.

But wait—judgement by burning in fire, ultimately by sulphur raining down from heaven, is only ONE of the many ways Hollywood will be judged.

'After I have exposed you, I will crush you. I will crush your bones. I will plunder your wealth. I will kill your families and wipe out all your descendants, says YHWH.

I will fight you like My equal and when I am done with you, you will cry for death but death will not come. You will beg Me to kill you and I will not, says YHWH.

You will not die suddenly, no. You will die atrociously but you will suffer seven times your original portion before dying. It is in the hands of your father, Satan, that you will die. Yes he, your father, will kill you with his bare hands.' - '7 Times Over In Half The Time', To Hollywood [Oct. 29, 2024]

Other judgements include death, incurable diseases, skin diseases and boils, publicly exposing their secrets, destroying their reputations and public relevance, and ultimately, making all of California sink under the sea. You can read all about it in the category of prophecies specifically addressed to Hollywood and California.

'I will flood them. I will send earthquakes and tsunamis over them. When I am done with them, there will be nothing left.' - The Fall Of Babylon [July 23, 2024]

For those of you, Hollywood people, who still cherish your lives, it is time to repent now and permanently turn away from your devil-worshipping ways. After proclamation #126 of 'Hollywood's Death Row' earlier today, coming in whilst you are dealing with such issues, do you really want to stay on the fence?

Can you afford to? Are you certain you want to continue provoking YHWH, the Most High? Can you deal with this fight you want to pick against Him? Just sit down for a second and truly think about it.

Soon the door for repentance will be shut and whatever position it finds you in shall define your fate—permanently!

Once Yah really starts unleashing His proper judgement upon you, of which you have not even seen the tip of the iceberg, you will remember you had read these prophecies and not taken heed, and you will have no one else to blame but yourselves.

Repent! It is now or never!

1 John 1:9

'If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.'
