Preface

The Fruit Factory is an end times prophecy ministry set apart for these very last days before Yahshua's return in glory. This ministry is The Master's handiwork to bring forth thoroughly pruned branches capable of producing platinum-graded fruit at an industrial level for His Kingdom (John 15).

Our duty unto YHWH is to sound the trumpet to His people, first to true Israel and then to the end times church: 'It is time for harvest! The Lord Jesus Christ is sounding the trumpet; only the fruitful will make it.'

We are pleased to present this download of YHWH's proclamation, free of charge. We hope you appreciate it, and we encourage you to share it with your friends and family. We only ask that it not be used for any commercial purposes, converted into other formats (audio, video, etc.), posted for download on other sites, or included in file or document collections without our permission. Proclamation

This is a prophecy chronicle for the nation of Japan that YHWH dictated to me in the afternoon of June 25, 2025. During my transcription of the prophecy to my electronic device, the Lord asked me to keep it compressed into a single proclamation.

Hear the word of YHWH to Japan as she enters her season of desolation, for all the end times events of the world have been meticulously planned by the Messiah Himself, who is preparing us, inhabitants of the earth for His glorious return. After

Isaiah 24:4 - The Fall Of Japan

'The earth dries up and withers, the world languishes and withers, the heavens languish with the earth.' — Isaiah 24:4

Thus says the YHWH Elohim, He who is, who was, and is to come:

'Japan has brought this upon themselves because of its extreme idolatry. They worship trees, forests, waters and objects made with their own hands. Necromancy is a part and parcel of their daily lives.

They idolise and promote Satan's demonic media. They idolise mangas and even dress up as demons and other devilish Manga characters. They live for their anime that are visual representations of every spiritual ideology My word forbids. They have brought this curse upon their own land. They have only themselves to blame.

I repeatedly give mankind chances to redeem themselves and turn away from their evil ways. Japan has been idolatrous from the beginning, yet I have allowed her to prosper. I have made it so that such a small nation rivals with those who have 10 times her population size.

This future is a kindness I am doing to Japan, it is not a judgment. I am merely allowing her to harvest a fraction of the consequences of her own wickedness because I want that next time I call out to her, she will finally hear Me and answer.'

The earth is defiled by its people; they have disobeyed the laws, violated the statutes and broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore a curse consumes the earth; its people must bear their guilt. Therefore earth's inhabitants are burned up, and very few are left. — Isaiah 24:5-6

Thus says YHWH, Creator of the heavens and the earth:

'The earth is spitting you out because of your trespassing, Japan. These consequences are in fact so much lighter than what you deserve. I have lightened your load because of My people, true Israel who still are in your midst. I have also lightened your load because the Gospel of Salvation in the Messiah will be preached all over your land and you will finally see the light.

The Philadelphia church of the end times will be in Japan, revival will come to Japan. Japan will be so shaken by these calamities that they will be forced into humility of heart. Finally, when I YHWH will speak, Japan will finally listen because she will realise that her 500 different false idols and ancestral shrines were not able to save her. She will despise her lying mangas and anime that have been instrumental in bringing her to her demise.

True Israel in Japan, those deeper-shaded tribes deep in the forest or up in the mountains, they will remember who they ware, that they are My people, and they will be reconciled to Me, their King. This time, their repentance will be true and it will endure till the end.

I, YHWH, watch. I patiently wait. I am so patient that the inhabitants of the world think I do not exist, but they are wrong. There is nothing that happens on the earth that escapes My eyes and now we have arrived the season for the earth to express her frustration with its inhabitants.

All desolations are determined.

I, YHWH, shall balance the scales.

I, YHWH, have spoken and My word shall not return to me void.'

I: Natural Disasters

The Lord told me that Japan will be hit by a series of earthquakes that will grow worse one after the other, at closer intervals to each other. It will become so recurrent and random that the whole country will be on permanent high alert.

Japan will also experience not one but two earthquakes that will reach level 10, triggering tsunamis of similar magnitude. Level 10 is higher than the single earthquake they experienced in 2011, which has historically been their most severe natural hazard so far.

You have to understand that whatever earthquakes the country has lived through in the past will not compare to what is coming. Whatever earthquakes they are reporting now will not compare to it.

These natural disasters will ravage about a quarter of Japan's landscape, causing major displacement of people. They will also result in other dangerous effects from the nuclear power plants that will be affected in certain regions.

This is set to happen in the current season of time, not in a far future 20 years from now. Meaning, we could all wake up to this tomorrow.

Isaiah 24:4 is coming to Japan and we will all be alive and able to see and witness it. The whole world will languish and mourn with and for Japan. The heavens will also mourn for Japan because YHWH cares for this nation. But Japan's future is not only inevitable, it is also necessary—as YHWH explained in His statement at the beginning of this prophecy.

II: Riots and Political Protests

YHWH also said that right after the global financial crash; Japan's citizens will explode with rage at their failed government and rulership system.

Yah explained to me that the Japanese people live in a culture that is deeply politically correct and filled with social decorum. From what He explained to me, the Japanese are taught from birth to suppress their feelings and emotions in general, but this is especially important when it comes to those older than you and authority figures; may it be at home, at work, or in the government.

YHWH said that Japan is a country that lives by the social law of upholding a facade that is always composed, so composed that someone should almost be timid in how they present themselves. The Japanese are highly deferential people in their way of life. However, the financial crash will be the incident that will cause the Japanese to break all those rules.

The Lord said that Japan has had at least two decades of dormant economic growth during which individuals have not really seen their lives improving despite their hard work. The people feel like they are in a permanently stagnant state. This has caused an increasing and compounding inner rage that its citizens have been keeping under control through their self-regulating norms of propriety and social decorum.

No more.

The whole country will go through explosive riots of concealed decade-long inner rage. All of that will be poured out with no restraint. It will start as anger against the government, but will rapidly turn into...

III: Civil War

There will be civil conflict between different classes: the rich or elite on one side, the poor or less rich on the other.

There will also be civil war between those who support the government and those who do not. This conflict will last longer—several months. During those months, going outside on the street in Japan will be dangerous. The country will also be militarised, the government will try keep its population under control.

IV: Nation-Wide Strikes

After the global financial crash, Japan's economy will get heavily hit, but it is the worker's strikes that will make the already-shaken economy go downhill. People will strike across all industries, refusing to go to work. Any Japanese reading this probably thinks that what YHWH is saying is impossible, but it is and it will happen.

Native Japanese will probably not believe this because YHWH has made me understand that Japan is a place where people work at a company from the time they graduate to the time they die. Many people die because of overworking themselves. The concept of paid overtime does not exist in Japan.

From an early age, people are taught that they basically exist to be good employees and owe their employers their livelihoods. This thing people in the West babble over, write books about, and hold extravagant campaigns and conferences over called work-life balance does not exist in Japan.

It is so common in Japan to commit suicide or have strokes, seizures and other such sudden-death experiences because of overwork that it has its own name there: Karoshi. Working 100 hours of unpaid overtime is a common occurrence in everyday life in Japan. Imagine that such a country, whose employees are so devoted to their employers that they lose their lives, will go through nationwide strikes. It will happen.

Yah says that Writers, actors and those of the creative arts will stop working and their strike will last for at least a few years. Manga writers, artists and Mangakas (artists/writer combo); authors of light novels and other works of literature; directors, animators, storyboard artists, and others in the anime industry. They will all go on strike—for years.

Civil workers and other bureaucrats who work for the government will go on strike, as will normal company employees. Taxi men, train and bus drivers; grocery store workers... Every one.

The Japanese will slam their fists on the table against their failing government and economy. They will revolt against modern-day slavery in their work environments. YHWH said that people are tired of this and their anger will be exacerbated by the financial crash and failed governance. They will prefer to stay at home—for YEARS until they actually see radical changes take place.

V: Unstable Government & Political Upheaval

YHWH said that the government will also go through several shake-ups, aside from the resistance they will be facing from the population, including a fair share of scandals amongst its leaders.

YHWH said that the country would go through a season of having many Prime Ministers in office, only to be thrown out shortly thereafter. This will remain the case until one man takes over and brings the change the people want and the nation needs.

YHWH has not revealed this person's identity to me, but it is under his leadership that the country will calm down and the economy slowly resume. People start picking back up their jobs at a normal rate.

The Lord has said that this leader has been chosen and anointed by Him to bring Japan back up on its feet. He will fight the beast system and stay in power for a long time. Yah said that this man would be like a sort of Emperor and the Lord would be the One upholding him there.
