PROCLAMATION

Thus says YHWH:

‘I am coming for a fruitful church! Any fruitless branch will be cut off.

The church of these end-times must be like the first church of the bible. My people must go to their bibles and read what the first church was like in the Acts of the Apostles: This is how the end times church must be to survive. Anything and anyone who falls below this standard will be swept away swiftly! The beast system will eat you up. That and only that is the standard, says the LORD.

You have been warned.

Anyone who is still living for themselves, their desires, their little world that revolves around them and not Me will be swept off! Anyone who desires to keep and preserve their own lives and earthly preoccupations will lose them all.

This generation will see the Antichrist. Not in some 50, 80, or 200 years, no... This generation will see the beast.

If you are not grounded in Me, My word, if you are not bearing fruit for Me, if you are not willing to live the way the first church lived and endure what they endured, you will be cut off, swept away and the beast and his system will eat you up.

You have been warned, says the LORD.’

‘Now many signs and wonders were done among the people through the apostles. And they were all together in Solomon’s Portico. None of the rest dared to join them, but the people held them in high esteem. Yet more than ever believers were added to the Lord, great numbers of both men and women, so that they even carried out the sick into the streets and laid them on cots and mats, in order that Peter’s shadow might fall on some of them as he came by. A great number of people would also gather from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all cured.

LISTEN, CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST!

Then the high priest took action; he and all who were with him (that is, the sect of the Sadducees), being filled with jealousy, arrested the apostles and put them in the public prison. But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors, brought them out, and said, “Go, stand in the temple and tell the people the whole message about this life.” When they heard this, they entered the temple at daybreak and went on with their teaching.

When the high priest and those with him arrived, they called together the council and the whole body of the elders of Israel and sent to the prison to have them brought. But when the temple police went there, they did not find them in the prison, so they returned and reported, “We found the prison securely locked and the guards standing at the doors, but when we opened them we found no one inside.” Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were perplexed about them, wondering what might be going on. Then someone arrived and announced, “Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!” Then the captain went with the temple police and brought them, but without violence, for they were afraid of being stoned by the people.

When they had brought them, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them, saying, “We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you are determined to bring this man’s blood on us.” But Peter and the apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than any human authority. The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.” —Acts 5:12-32

About the author

By the way...

'Yahshua' is simply Jesus' name in Hebrew. Various scholars have argued for spellings and/or pronunciations like Yehoshua or Yeshua, which are variations of Joshua, but we prefer to stick with Yahshua as meaning, 'Yah/YHWH saves.'
