PROCLAMATION

Not Without a Fight – Volume 3

Today, I will narrate the dream that ignited this whole chronicle of prophecies. I received it from YHWH on Dec. 7, 2024. I have removed personal information from the dream to keep it neutral, applicable to every reader, and focused on the message Yah wants to convey.

Thus says YHWH:

‘This chronicle is wisdom for 2025 onward for the one who desires to endure the times to come. You are walking through the doors of the tribulation now, and you will climb those steps incrementally until you reach the main gates. Once you get there, it will be carnage for all those who call upon My name.’

The dream began with a gathering of people in a corporate building. They were murmuring things like, ‘They are taking names off of the list... You have to make sure your name is on the list.’ They were asking each other, ‘Is your name on the list?’ and encouraging each other to, ‘Not ruffle any feathers, or else you will not get your name on the list.’

So many people were talking about it that I started wondering what this list was. Well, I did not have to wonder too long because Yah brought me to the place where the famous ‘list’ was being kept.

I saw myself in a large hall. People were queuing in front of a registrar, let’s call her Charlotte, who was sitting behind a dark brown, solid wood desk with large books lying before her.

Apart from the central queuing line that was in the middle, there were also chairs placed around the walls of the room where people were waiting, with more people walking in and out of the hall in several directions, using the different doors at different ends of the room. The place was very busy.

I was watching this dream from a third-person point of view—as if watching a movie—and I saw myself standing in the central queue, second in line, waiting to speak to the registrar.

My turn finally arrived, and I took a few steps forward, greeted Charlotte and gave her my name.

She opened one of her large books, flipped through the pages, then closed it. She took a second book and did the same, then a third one and stopped in her tracks. She read a specific page in the book at length, and after a few minutes, closed the book and told me that my name could not be found.

‘There must be a mistake somewhere,’ I answered, knowing full well that my name was on that list. In fact, I knew she had just seen it, and that’s why she stopped flipping through the pages earlier.

‘No, your name is not on the list, Madam. You will have to let the next person come forward,’ she replied.

I was not having it. ‘How can you just blatantly lie in my face this way?’ I said. ‘The name is right there, you just read it.’

This exchange went on for some minutes. Charlotte was insistent that she had seen no such name, and I must vacate the line for the next people to come forward. She was not only saying it, but she was boasting about it.

Charlotte knew the power she possessed, to be able to make or break people’s destinies by a simple yes and no, and revelled in abusing it and rubbing it in your face in a ‘Yes, I am abusing you because I can, now go away,’ fashion.

I decided to take my tone up a few notches, ‘Ma’am, you are going to give me my title deed right now!’ I said, ‘My name is on the list; you are committing a crime.’

Charlotte stopped and looked at me, smiled, and then stood up from her chair. She paused and gave me a defiant look that said, ‘Well, watch me!’

Until now, no one had stood up to her to tell her flat-out that she could not just keep getting away with a crime. She kept doing this to people, and line after line, they would walk away, sometimes in tears, seeing their lifelong dreams shredded to pieces.

She went out from behind her desk and was about to walk past me when I shouted, 'In the name of Jesus Christ, I command you to stand still and give me my title deed right now!'

My command stopped her right there. She stood still—as if paralysed.

Then I started firing bullets of the word of YHWH at her, without pause:

'I command you, devil, to release my inheritance in the name of Yahshua!'

'Satan, you will not plunder me!'

'I rebuke you, daughter of Satan. You will come back to this desk and give me my document, in the name of Jesus Christ!'

'I plead the blood of Yahshua to vindicate me and retrieve what He died on the cross to acquire for me!'

I kept on going with such declarations and prayers, and everyone in the room stopped and watched this debacle unfold, floored by the fact that this woman stood still and, despite her efforts, was unable to move forward.

Charlotte tried to resist the power that was pulling her back, the sword of the Spirit that is the word of YHWH, and began to wrestle with this power. Everyone could see her sweating, yet the naked eye could not perceive the hard battle she was in, but I knew.

I knew that she was fighting not to be pulled back to the table to give me what she owed me. I knew this was a spiritual battle, and I was not going to let this woman, whom I perceived was an agent of Satan, win.

'For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds' —2 Corinthians 10:4.

When I saw that she was still managing to stay up and was not coming back, I closed my eyes and doubled down. This time, it was a mix of praying audible words and praying in tongues. I decided to exclusively use Scripture in my prayers and doubled down.

'Yah has delivered Me from the hand of my oppressor, Satan you will not steal my inheritance, in the name of Yahshua!'

'A thousand may fall at My side and ten thousand at my right hand, but it shall not come near me. Woman, you have been doing this to every person coming to this line, but you will not succeed with me. I command you in the name of Yahshua to come back to this desk right now and give me my title deed!

— 'YHWH anoints my head with oil and my cup overflows. My blessing shall overflow in this room right now.'

Charlotte was visibly getting weaker and her sweating increased. Seeing this, I escalated the battle from one to a hundred. I started shouting at the top of my lungs, for I was not losing this battle.

I came to stand in front of her and started repeating.

'Agent of darkness, you will bow to the name of Jesus Christ!'

'His light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. You have not overcome me. You will not overcome me, agent of darkness.'

It became an attraction, people came from other rooms in the building. Everyone hearing, watching, witnessing, and astonished. I kept going:

'You will bow, you MUST bow! The voice of Yah inside me speaks, and you will obey!'

'His name is above every other name. Bow to the Messiah inside me, in the name of Jesus!'

I kid you not, this woman's right knee started folding to the floor. She was fighting it and losing—it was quite the scene. People around us were in shock, some brought their hands to cover their mouths with their eyes wide open, speechless.

I kept repeating it.

'Satan, you are a defeated foe. You shall not have my inheritance. Bow to the name of Jesus and obey!'

'I command you now in the name of Jesus, you are going back to that desk and you will give me my title deed!'

At this point she had both knees on the floor and started creeping back to the desk, still trying to fight it, but unable to resist. I kept repeating the sentence about her coming back to the desk to give me my title deed. It went on for a while.

The crowd watched the registrar crawl back to that desk and when she was about to stand up to get the books that had the documents in them, she started manifesting and fell to the ground. She began to coil around on the ground like a serpent and was out of her mind.

I did not really care about this, I kept repeating my prayers and firing those bullets of the word of YHWH and we could visibly see it pierce this woman as she coiled and groaned on the floor, shirt dripping wet with sweat.

Then a man, let's call him Charles, suddenly walked into the room and to the woman's desk. He looked at her on the floor, then looked straight into my eyes with such hatred as I could not properly describe.

Charles focused his gaze on me, 'She said your name was not on the list,' he said, taking a few steps in my direction. His visibly larger, taller and stronger physical build was hard to miss, he was trying to intimidate me.

'I guarantee that you don't want to pick this fight,' I replied, 'You will not win, just take another look at your colleague,' I added, 'Just give me the deed, and I will be on my way.'

We looked at each other for some time and Charles went back to the desk, opened the book, ticked my name on the list and gave me the title deed. I took it and left the room.

This is where the dream ended.

Dream interpretation

This dream is a good representation of what we, Yah's Israel and lovers of Yahshua, will have to face in the coming 2025, and it is only going to get worse as we move forward.

The dream showed in its first part that everyone was trying to get their names on a list. The people on this 'list' represents those who have been set apart for Yah's provision or promotion in these times.

YHWH said in #109 that whilst some people will be stripped naked in these difficulties [particularly financially], there are some of His children who will be taken care of, and some will even get promoted in the midst of shortage.

There are several biblical examples of such instances, Joseph and Daniel directly come to mind. Even King David was promoted during war after Yah defeated his enemies on his behalf, as he recounts in Psalm 18.

In this moment in time, YHWH has a list of such people, to whom He will be giving earthly rewards and their inheritance, as it is written that those who are meek shall inherit the earth [Matt 5:5].

What the Bible calls ‘meek’ are those who have humble spirits, contrite hearts, and live lives that are in full submission to YHWH. They do not wrestle with the word of Yah, but submit to, and obey it.

They are not complacent with the world and do not show partiality to wickedness. The meek do not rely on their own understanding but at all times, seek wisdom that is from above, from YHWH, for their major and minor life decisions.

The meek do not live with bitterness and resentment in their hearts. They are slow to anger and quick to forgive. They give generously and are good stewards of resources because they know that nothing they possess belongs to them, but to YHWH.

The meek carry Christ's light and walk in that light. They do not lie, slander, or deceive. They make themselves low so that the Messiah in them can be exalted. Meekness is not about doing performative humility; it is about a posture of heart.

Meekness produces fruits that are visible to all: faith, love, obedience, patience, compassion, kindness, generosity, a tamed tongue, self-control, holiness, fortitude, endurance and perseverance. They are those of whom Paul wrote when he said, ‘Let your gentleness be evident to all’ [Phil 4:5]. They do not envy, they do not boast, they are not proud.

However, having one’s name written on the list, and qualifying as ‘meek’ was no guarantee to receive Yah’s intended promotion.

This was represented in this dream by the woman who was freely doing what she pleased with people’s futures on that list. Yah is illustrating that Satan will not hesitate to rob the qualified of their inheritance. The inheritance may be theirs, yes, but they will still have to contend for it—nothing will come to them without a fight.

What the Holy Spirit is bringing back to my remembrance right now is what He told me once many years ago whilst I was going through a situation I felt was incredibly unfair—which it was.

He very calmly said to me, 'Life is not fair, dear, and nobody owes you anything. If you understand this truth, your life will become 98% easier and anything will hardly be able to shake your peace.' I am giving the reader the same counsel today.

If those whose names are on the list have to go through such brutal warfare to get what is lawfully theirs, then imagine what it will be like for those who do not.

My question to you, friends, is to know if Yah were to examine your lives this day, would your name be written on the list based upon the criteria listed above?

The second part of the dream then touches on the actual warfare involved in this process. How many of us just accept failures and the nos we are told as part of life, or as bad luck, or simply life's difficulties, without considering the spiritual side of things?

Before I came to that line, so many before me had accepted what the woman had told them and walked away in tears but when you are a child of Zion, you cannot live your life this way.

This is what YHWH said in part two of this chronicle:

'There is always more to what meets the eye, ALWAYS. This is how you must live and take everything in. In this posture, you will be constantly seeking and tapping into the mind and heart of Christ, which I have given you....

Everything is spiritual, nothing just "happens". You must live by tools and weapons that are spiritual and not carnal. When you abide in Me and I in you, you possess Me inside of you, and you must make use of your full inheritance as co-heirs with the Messiah in every way possible.' (Oct. 30, 2024. Have you counted the cost?).

The dream clearly represents this. As the woman was walking away with my inheritance, my spiritual awareness kicked in and the Holy Spirit took over the whole matter. The process was a long one and at different moments, I had to increase the intensity of my prayer until the battle was won and I received that paper in my hands.

This is the nature of spiritual warfare: it is not done until it is done. You have not finished until you have finished. Satan will not relent until he sees you living and walking in your inheritance and even then, he will still try to destroy what you have. You cannot keep your guard down, Satan never does. It takes patience, consistency, strength and endurance.

'Be alert and of sober mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.' - 1Peter 5:8.

Peter did not stutter when he used the words: alert and of sober mind. Let's go deeper into the meaning of his statement.

Alert, definition:

(a) Quick to notice any unusual and potentially dangerous or difficult circumstances; vigilant.

(b) The state of being watchful for possible danger.

(c) Quick to see, understand, and act in a particular situation.

(d) A warning to people to be prepared to deal with something dangerous.

Sober-minded, definition: Serious, sensible, and composed.

With these definitions in mind, let's read Peter's statement again:

(a) 'Be [quick to notice any unusual and potentially dangerous or difficult circumstances] and of a [serious, sensible, and composed] mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.'

(b) 'Be [in the state of being watchful for possible danger] and of a [serious, sensible, and composed] mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.'

(c) 'Be [quick to see, understand, and act in a particular situation] and of a [serious, sensible, and composed] mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.'

(d) 'Be [prepared to deal with something dangerous] and of a [serious, sensible, and composed] mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.'

This takes us back to what YHWH said in part two of this chronicle:

‘The way that you "finish" is by comprehending that you are in a war zone, therefore, you do not walk about in a war zone not being prepared for, and anticipating, war.’ (Dec. 29, 2024. Have you counted the cost?).

The word of YHWH tells us that we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.

My reaction to the dismissive and wicked woman in this dream is a clear representation of that, so much such that another person came and had to back off, seeing that his colleague was mopping the floor because of the power we received by calling upon the name of YHWH.

Over the course of this chronicle, Yah has given us clear insight into the future, detailed teaching and all the necessary tools with practical examples—as in this dream—on how to overcome. Let none of us oversee this priceless information but apply ourselves to studying it and putting it into practice, that we may not be one of the many names in that list that never saw their inheritance delivered to them.

‘But all things become visible when they are exposed by the light [of God’s precepts], for it is light that makes everything visible.

For this reason He says: "Awake, sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine [as dawn] upon you and give you light."

Therefore see that you walk carefully [living life with honor, purpose, and courage; shunning those who tolerate and enable evil], not as the unwise, but as wise [sensible, intelligent, discerning people], making the very most of your time [on earth, recognizing and taking advantage of each opportunity and using it with wisdom and diligence], because the days are [filled with] evil.

Therefore do not be foolish and thoughtless, but understand and firmly grasp what the will of the Lord is.

Do not get drunk with wine, for that is wickedness (corruption, stupidity), but be filled with the [Holy] Spirit and constantly guided by Him.

Speak to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, [offering praise by] singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord; always giving thanks to God the Father for all things, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; being subject to one another out of reverence for Christ.’ —Ephesians 5:13-21.

I rest my case.

AFTERWORD

The Fruit Factory is a call to true Israel and the end times church. It is time for harvest! The Lord Yahshua, the Christ, is sounding the trumpet: only the fruitful will make it.

Here are our top-five recommended proclamations for every reader of The Fruit Factory to get a clear understanding of the times that will preface the Messiah's return, and learn how to endure till the end. Please read them in order, from top to bottom. You won't regret it.

By the way...

'Yahshua' is simply Jesus' name in Hebrew. Various scholars have argued for spellings and/or pronunciations like Yehoshua or Yeshua, which are variations of Joshua, but we prefer to stick with Yahshua as meaning, 'Yah/YHWH saves.'
