PROCLAMATION

This morning, Oct. 14, 2025, the day after the last day of the Feast of Tabernacles (or Festival of Booths), which my family and I celebrate, I was getting my Bible and other materials ready to start Bible study when Yah gave me a vision.

I saw myself standing on a stage, in an arena full of tens of thousands of people. I had my notebook in front of me and was preparing to deliver the word that YHWH had given me for the people, who were clapping as I was welcomed on stage.

The clapping stopped, and the room went dead silent.

‘Good evening to you all, children of the Most High Yah,’ I said. ‘Before we begin, I would like to thank our God for His mercy and grace towards me and all of us. I thank Him for bringing me here now to address His people on His behalf, and I pray that—.’

‘My heart is anguished and My soul is faint,’ I heard Yah say, cutting the vision off. ‘The Scripture I made you read before bed yesterday, when I was about to be betrayed and I went to Gethsemane with some disciples to pray, with anguish and dread in My heart, wasn't just another Bible study moment for you. I did not direct you to that Scripture for nothing; that is how I feel right now,’ the Lord added.

‘Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane, and He said to his disciples, “Sit here, while I go over there and pray.” And taking with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, He began to be sorrowful and troubled. Then He said to them, “My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here, and watch with Me.”

And going a little farther He fell on his face and prayed, saying, “My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will.”

And He came to the disciples and found them sleeping. And He said to Peter, “So, could you not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

Again, for the second time, He went away and prayed, “My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done.” And again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

So, leaving them again, He went away and prayed for the third time, saying the same words again.

Then he came to the disciples and said to them, “Sleep and take your rest later on. See, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise, let us be going; see, my betrayer is at hand.” —Matthew 26:36-46.

As I transcribed this prophecy, my own heart was greatly troubled; I could feel so much grief come from the Lord in my spirit. I still feel it right now, and I plan to just sit with this a while today, in prayer and meditation over His words.

I hope that you will do the same, even if just for a moment. Let His words sink into your heart and let the Holy Spirit whisper in your ear, giving you counsel and comfort as to what to do next for yourself and your family.

We will sleep and take our rest later on, friends. Now is the time to keep watch. We must watch and pray that we may not enter into temptation.

The hour of the tribulation is at hand; the hour of the terrible persecution of God's people is at hand. Our Lord feels this pain because we are His body, we are His bride, so when we hurt, He hurts, too.

Yesterday, Oct 13, 2025, on the last day of the Feast of Tabernacles, I spent my afternoon receiving an outline of a seven-part prophetic chronicle from Yah. It is titled ‘The Return Of Jim Crow’; a series of extremely unpleasant revelations about what true Israel will endure before her exodus and regathering; it shall be published here in due time.

This message's timing is no coincidence. As YHWH asked us to keep this festival, ‘So that your generations may know that I made the Israelites live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.’ He, too, remembers that history, and unlike us, everything that happened in that wilderness is as clear to Him as everything that is happening to us now, and is yet to happen in the future; for He lives outside of time.

In such a season of remembrance of our forefathers' journey through the wilderness, which was when YHWH established an everlasting covenant with Israel, of, 'You shall be My people, and I will be your God,' Yah has a message for us. We are their descendants, whom He will once more regather, take through the wilderness, and bring back to the land of our fathers.

It is going to get much worse for us, both True Israel and the Church, before it gets better; we must brace ourselves for that.

Thus says YHWH Elohim:

'My heart is anguished and My soul is faint, says Your Saviour. For the amount of pain My people are about to go through.

Tell My bride, Elvira, the apple of My eye. Tell the church, Elvira, that they will go through a lot of pain.

Israel went through her punishment, her 400 years of slavery under the cruel Egyptians, in the land of the United States of America. Her 400 years of slavery under the soulless colonisers in Africa. Her 400 years of suffering in the mountains, bushes and Island coasts, where she was ravaged by disease and saw her population steadily decrease. This was her punishment for her harlotries and sorceries; her unfaithfulness to Me, as I had warned her about countless times before.

She must know that what is coming will not be for her punishment, but for her salvation

Both True Israel and the church are incredibly filthy, still. None of them is prepared to meet Me. They need to be cleansed of their iniquity and purged to be fruitful branches.

If this doesn't happen, there will be no one on earth in these end times for Me to call Mine, for righteousness is about to completely disappear from the surface of the earth.

Basic human decency is about to vanish. Human beings will lose their conscience; there shall be no more fear of being wicked. The Restrainer, My Holy Spirit, shall restrain no more. Your world is about to turn into anarchy, complete lawlessness, like in the days of Noah.

When I see what they are about to suffer, My heart is anguished, and My soul faints, but there is no other way.

My people, wail! O, wail! The devourer shall not hold back. Wail! O, Wail!

My soul weeps for the pain that the Saints shall suffer, but there is no other way.

Tell them, Elvira, tell them that they are not alone; they have Me, their Lord and Saviour. They must pray. They must spend time in their Bibles. They must practice obedience and righteous sacrifice before My face. They must walk blamelessly before Me.

They must study the life of the Messiah and learn from Him. Study His character, His habits, His words and His ministry; soak it up and let it sink to the deepest part of your hearts.

My heart is faint for the blood of the martyrs; so many of them, like have never been seen on the surface of the earth. But their reward is in heaven, and their deaths shall not be in vain.

Elvira, re-tell the dream I gave you about the martyrdom in this proclamation. They need to read it and let it soak in. What happened to that believer who died will happen to millions of people. The death toll of My saints makes My head ache, but there is no other way.

Wail, My People, and be prepared! Now is not the time to be distracted with the latest sneakers, phones and gadgets. Now is not the time to be interested in the latest movies or music albums.

Now is not the time to be entertained, but to be trained—train your hearts for what is coming or else they will fail!

O, Wail! Men's hearts will fail them. When they look around, what their eyes see and ears hear makes their hearts stop. This is not a figure of speech; take these words in their most literal sense.

Pray that your hearts will not fail you. Pray that your emotions will not get the best of you. Pray that even if you are able to endure the persecution because of My protection, even if you are not thrown into temptation in that time because of My preservation, pray that what you will see the world turn into will not be the thing that makes you give up and choose death instead.

Elvira, re-tell them the dream I gave you about the people who were dumbfounded and flabbergasted, as if at a funeral.

What does My word say, Elvira?’

When Yah asked me this question, a part of Isaiah 43 came to my mind, and as I recalled it, Yah started reciting it directly into my ear.

Thus says YHWH:

‘When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned, nor shall the flame scorch you.

For I am YHWH your Elohim, The Holy One of Israel, your Saviour; I gave Egypt for your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in your place. Since you were precious in My sight, you have been honoured, and I have loved you; therefore I will give men for you, and people for your life.

Fear not, for I am with you; I will bring your descendants from the east, and gather you from the west; I will say to the north, ‘Give them up!’ And to the south, ‘Do not keep them back!’ Bring My sons from afar, and My daughters from the ends of the earth—everyone who is called by My name, whom I have created for My glory; I have formed them, yes, I have made them.

Most of you are not ready to be regathered, and thus this regathering will have to be prefaced by a lot of tests, trials and purging of the wicked from amongst you because only those who walk blameless before Me shall make it back to Jerusalem. In these times, My nation shall be holy; holy is the only standard.

Suffering may come, My people, but you are not alone.

Those who keep My word and decrees, and practise what Messiah taught, emulate Me and My character in their daily lives; those will be saved. To those I say: I have numbered the hairs on your head, and not one of them shall fall to the ground.

I will use what the enemy tries to persecute you with and turn it into good. I, your Elohim, will turn your sadness into joy and your mourning into dancing. That is My promise to you, O My Israel.

My heart is faint, but there is no other way.

If only you would listen when I talk to you, Israel, but you were rebellious from birth. From the beginning, you have always been trying to fight Me, your God. From the beginning, you set your heart upon challenging Me and running astray.

I shall take that rebellion out of you with an iron rod, and remove all the ways of the Egyptians from your midst; the idolatry, pride and cruelty of Babylon. It won't be pleasant, but it must be done.

My soul is anguished, but there is no other way.

Re-tell them that dream about the double persecution, too, Elvira. Tell them and let them know that they are not alone.

I, YHWH Elohim, have spoken. This pruning of My people shall surely come to pass, but you are not alone.

How do they say it again, Elvira?

When Yah asked me this, a turn of phrase often used in my culture spontaneously came to my mouth. 'By fire or by force, my Lord,' I answered.

'By fire or by force' is an expression used predominantly in central and west Africa, which means that something will be achieved by any means necessary; come rain or shine, come hell or high water. It means that no matter what happens, how many obstacles or how long the passing of time, that thing will be achieved; it will surely be accomplished.

'How do they say it?' Yah asked.

'By fire or by force.'

'How do they say it, My daughter?' Yah asked one last time.

'By fire or by force.'

'By fire or by force, I will cleanse you and prepare you for YHWH-Shammah, Israel.

By fire or by force, I will fulfil My vows to you as your husband. Although you are an adulterous woman, Israel, by fire or by force, I, your Saviour, will save you from your lawlessness.

By fire or by force, I will return you to your former glory. I will fulfil My promises to you, and will vindicate the truth.

By fire or by force, I will cleanse you and put on you that sparkly white linen garment of holiness and righteousness.

By fire or by force, I will be your God and you will be My people.

I will extract from your midst a remnant fit to return to your fatherland. It will come with pain, under a rod of discipline, but you are not alone.

The easiest way out of this for you is to choose obedience now and be preserved at an individual level, as I spoke to the church of Philadelphia.

I, YHWH Elohim, have spoken, and none of My words shall fall to the ground.'

'Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I will send to Babylon and break down all the bars, and the shouting of the Chaldeans will be turned to lamentation. I am the Lord, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.

Thus says the Lord, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down; they cannot rise; they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:

Do not remember the former things or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth; do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

The wild animals will honor Me, the jackals and the ostriches, for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to My chosen people, the people whom I formed for Myself so that they might declare My praise.

Yet you did not call upon Me, O Jacob; but you have been weary of Me, O Israel!

You have not brought Me your sheep for burnt offerings or honored Me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with offerings or wearied you with frankincense.

You have not bought Me sweet cane with money or satisfied Me with the fat of your sacrifices. Rather, you have burdened Me with your sins; you have wearied Me with your iniquities.

I alone am the one who blots out your transgressions for My own sake, and I will not remember your sins.

Accuse Me; let us go to trial; set forth your case, so that you may be proved right.

Your first ancestor sinned, and your mediators rebelled against Me. Therefore I profaned the princes of the sanctuary; I delivered Jacob to utter destruction and Israel to reviling.

But now hear, O Jacob My servant, Israel whom I have chosen! Thus says the Lord who made you, who formed you in the womb and will help you:

Do not fear, O Jacob my servant, Jeshurun whom I have chosen. For I will pour water on the thirsty land and streams on the dry ground;

I will pour My spirit upon your descendants and My blessing on your offspring. They shall spring up like a green tamarisk, like willows by flowing streams.

This one will say, “I am the LORD's”; another will be called by the name of Jacob; yet another will write on the hand, “The LORD's,” and adopt the name of Israel.

Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts: I am the first, and I am the last; besides Me there is no god.

Who is like Me? Let them proclaim it; let them declare and set it forth before me. Who has announced from of old the things to come? Let them tell us what is yet to be.

Do not fear or be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? You are My witnesses! Is there any god besides Me? There is no other rock; I know not one.’ — Isaiah 43:14-28; 44:1-8.

Yah asked that I re-tell three different visions He had given me in the past:

- Vision #1: The martyrdom will be televised (Aug. 27, 2024).
- Vision #2: Men's hearts will fail them (Aug. 02, 2024).
- Vision #3: Double persecution for Israel (Aug. 03, 2024).

Since they have all already been proclaimed here at His Fruit Factory, I was going to add them as links in this proclamation so that it doesn't get too long, but Yah said, ‘What does “re-telling” mean?’ And I was once more reminded of the fact that when YHWH says something, He means it.

I saw a middle-aged man, let's call him Matt, standing at the centre of a square-shaped stage, full of lights and cameras that were streaming the event live online. There was such a large crowd around the stage that the whole setup almost looked like a concert gathering.

An emcee, who was known to be a powerful false prophet at the time, took hold of the microphone and informed everyone present and watching what they were there for: to judge this man they considered a transgressor.

He turned to Matt and read the charges against him out loud. Matt was guilty of owning Bibles, preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom through the repentance of sins in Christ. 'Sin? According to who?' The emcee asked, with a boisterous laugh. Matt was also guilty of organising 'rebellious' Christian gatherings that are forbidden.

The penalty for all of that was death.

Then several scenes of people watching this event from around the world started flashing before me. Matt was a prominent minister of the Gospel, very well known around the world for his preaching. Billions were watching from different nations, with corresponding translations being done live too (AI technology).

My knowledge of the situation was that the ruler of the world, who stood over every nation and people at the time, had passed a law to make certain Christian executions a worldwide event, to send a message to every soul on earth that this would be what awaits them if they kept going on with believing in and preaching Yahshua the Christ.

The emcee asked Matt if he had any last words before his death, and this man of God proceeded with giving the most heartfelt and powerful sermon about faith in Christ. It was what I would imagine Steven's speech in Acts 7 must have felt like because I could feel great power coming out of that man, as I had the vision.

Then it cut abruptly to him getting hanged. He held onto that cord with all his might and tried his best to resist as long as possible, but it eventually got the best of him, and he died. I felt tears welling up in my eyes as I watched Matt fight for the Gospel and this life. He didn't go out without a fight.

Then the vision cut to an apartment, where a group of believers and I were watching Matt on our TV. What was interesting was that none of us was sad, on the contrary, the fire of the Holy Spirit inside us couldn't have been burning more than it did in that moment.

'This is the time for the Gospel to shine. Come on, Matt! You were prepared for this,' someone cried. Our faith was being bolstered, and souls fortified. From my point of view, watching this scene, all of us felt unified in spirit with Matt in that moment.

As he preached that last sermon, we were speaking words of encouragement to Matt through the screen, and it felt like he could hear us. It was as if our collective faith, the Holy Spirit inside of us, had brought us into that moment as one.

Matt was not alone; he was like a single voice that represented all of us, disciples of Christ, and we were all on that stage with him as he spoke. The Holy Spirit was definitely with all of us and was in control of this whole experience.

When they finally put the rope around his neck, we started praying, saying, 'Father, it is time for you to welcome your son home.' It was a powerful moment.

The Holy Spirit was so heavy on me by then during this open-eyed vision that I could feel His fire blazing just beneath my skin. I had been standing all along, but at some point, one of my knees dropped to the ground, as I sought support in order not to fall because of how much power I was feeling pouring out of Him in my spirit.

Then, the vision fast-forwarded to Matt's funeral. A small group of us went into the woods to commemorate Matt's life. We praised and worshipped YHWH for glorifying Himself in that moment through our brother. It was not grieving and there were no tears, for we knew we would meet Matt again very soon. His martyrdom galvanised us and made our faith stronger than ever.

Our burial service was interrupted by the appearance of a man, let's call him Tom, and his family, from behind trees. Everyone was immediately alerted, with people suddenly pointing their guns at him in a series of reflex moves.

Tom put his hands up and slowly approached us, saying, 'I come in peace.' His wife and daughter timidly followed him, with the wife holding their daughter's hand to keep her close.

One of the elders of our group walked forward and inquired of the man, which opened the floor for Tom to tell us their story.

Tom was one of the billions of people who watched the worldwide livestream of Matt's execution. He listened to Matt's speech and was touched by his display of faith and the defence that he put up for the Gospel, even as he faced death.

Right there and then, Tom felt a brokenness in his spirit, opened up his heart to the message of the Gospel, repented of his sins and accepted Christ as his Lord and Saviour.

Later that night, Tom had a personal encounter with the Messiah in a dream, who gave him specific instructions about how to escape and go to a place where he and his family would be safe.

As soon as he woke up, he packed 2 backpacks, took his family, and they escaped, leaving their whole lives behind. Step by step, they blindly followed the Lord's instructions. With Tom leading the small pack, they succeeded in leaving town undetected, which is a miracle in itself. As they continued following His instructions, it led them into those woods until they found themselves there, with us.

This is where the vision ended.

On October 26th, 2024, YHWH gave me a statement for this proclamation.

Thus says YHWH:

'The martyrdom will be televised. They will televise the execution of Christians for a while until they realise that it is having the opposite effect of what they had expected.

The false Christians who will abandon Me in the hour of trial will not survive, though. As they fall away from the faith and renounce Me for their convenience and to try to save their lives, they will lose it. The beast is loyal to no one, and he won't spare them. He will trick them and end up getting rid of them anyway.

As they lose it and are purged out of the false Christianity that exists today, My true end times church will begin to form all around the world, from the people who will watch the executions and be gripped by the Holy Spirit to yield and give their lives to Christ.

The true end times church will be forged out of the tribulation with persecution and martyrdom. The Philadelphia church will come out of the Smyrna church.

It is during such events that even My people, True Israel, will begin to wake up to their true identity in massive numbers around the four corners of the earth. They will have supernatural encounters with the Holy Spirit in those moments of watching the power of faith.

That power will sweep throughout the entire earth, and although the Church will be getting smaller, it will become stronger. The Smyrna church will form out of atheists, Muslims, New Age people, witches, wizards, warlocks, sorcerers, Bahai followers, Confucius followers, etc. A very large proportion of it will come from the Middle East and Asia. Africans will also see their faith take a new form; many of them will abandon the idols and have a supernatural encounter with the truth.

The tribulation will be a period of immense suffering and death for the Church, but it will also be a time of great revival around the world.

Do not think that you will see the revivals on your phone or TV screens, no. It will be silent revivals that will not be seen but only felt. The power of raw faith will be felt once more, like it was in the times of the first Church, like you read in the book of Acts. This church will not have billions of people, no. But the little that will be there will be true. They will be robust. They will be ready to die for Me, as I first died for them first.

I cannot wait to do away with all the false Christians that saturate My sight daily, and to welcome those who will practice what My word says in spirit and in truth, and in the midst of persecution and death.

The Church will be profoundly purged through inconceivable hardships, but what will be left of her will be pure, as I always intended. That is My true church. It is she who will become My bride.

Once the tribulation is over, My bride will be made of iron, unbreakable, untouchable, and she will be My crowning joy upon the earth. She will be ready to make her way back to the land of milk and honey and to receive her inheritance.

The synagogue of Satan will bow to you, My bride. All the earth that hated you will bring their gold and silver to you. The entire world will watch and see that the God of Israel is alive and His power immeasurable and unstoppable.

I, the YHWH, the Almighty God, have spoken, and so it shall be.'

Vision #2: Men's hearts will fail them (Aug. 02, 2024).

In a series of visions, the Lord showed me people's reactions when they would come to know the truth He would release through this ministry. This is for those who will take these words seriously.

In the first vision, I saw a man standing in front of a church calling his wife. She came over and they began speaking to each other in their African dialect. I could not understand the dialect, but the Holy Spirit translated it for me.

In a nutshell, he was telling her, 'Can you believe it is now that we are discovering this?' Then began to give her the details about what he had read published here at The Fruit Factory, and she was shocked.

Superimposed—as if a second layer—on this vision was another scene of a woman. She sat on the floor, alone, hands pressed against her chest and wailing! She rocked her body back and forth, holding her chest and crying like a baby. It was like a funeral. She wailed and wailed, cried and screamed.

Later in the afternoon, Yah gave me another vision. I saw a group of people getting into a bus, one by one, their faces filled with grief. They were so distraught and heartbroken that the whole bus was devoid of life.

One of them got powered up in her spirit, stood up to her feet with full energy and determination and said, 'It is better to know the truth!' She repeated herself several times, looking around her and saying to all the others, 'At least now we know the truth!' But no one responded.

The people looked at her with little to no reaction, as she was boldly proclaiming these fiery Spirit-filled encouraging words. They continued entering the bus nonchalantly; they looked pale and displayed their unspeakable grief with silent impassiveness, like at a funeral.

Towards 7:00 pm, I had one more vision about this matter. I was in a room at Church, and everyone around me was still in this atmosphere of shock and despair. Everyone was silent, and their souls downcast.

Then, one of them stood up and began to sing a song, whose lyrics I may not clearly recall word for word, but whose general meaning I was able to capture. It spoke about how the truth may shock the mind and rattle emotions, but it is ultimately the best thing for the human soul.

No one sang along—not a single soul. They just sat, pale and silent. Like at a funeral.

On Oct. 14, 2024, this is what YHWH spoke as a solemn statement for this proclamation.

Thus says YHWH:

‘Wail, My people, Wail!

For the times that had been prophesied in times of old are finally here. The beast is finally here. The tribulation is finally at hand.

But do not wail too long, for there is no time left, and the day of the Lord will come to you like a thief at night.

Your way of survival is by repentance, obedience, praying, fasting, soaking in My word and doing the good works of the faith.

If you did not do these before, start now. If you did these before, increase your rate, increase your intensity, increase your zeal.

I am sending forth My servant Elvira as a trumpet call to you. I am sending her forth as a guide to you. I am sending her forth as a compass that you may be able to watch and stay awake, for the devourer is about to overtake the land.

In all things, know that if you choose Me, then I will be with you. If you abide in Me, I will abide in you. Love what I love and hate what I hate. Do what I tell you and repent of your old ways.

Find the narrow path and walk on it without looking to the left or the right, for it is the only path that leads to life.

I, YHWH Elohim, have spoken. Cleve to Me and be saved. Amen.'

This vision opened with a black woman, let's call her Imani, at the doctor's office. She had just done some exams and was supposed to get the results and corresponding treatment from her doctor during this consultation.

The doctor came in, holding a file, and told Imani, 'I am sorry, but we are unable to provide you with this treatment.'

Imani was baffled by his statement and asked why.

'Because there are certain elements in your blood that are not compatible with the treatment,' he answered.

Imani asked if there were other options, and the doctor said no, telling her that she would have to go to another doctor altogether.

The vision cut to a quick succession of images of pregnant black women, young and old alike, going through this same experience.

One of them had almost come to term, and she and her husband, let's call them Nia and Dion, were shocked when their doctor told them the same thing as Imani. They asked the doctor what they were supposed to do now that Nia's due date was only days away, and they were told the same thing as Imani: go try at another doctor.

I saw that even at the pharmacy, people were being told the same thing, and being denied prescription and over-the-counter drugs.

Yah then showed me the source of these denials, and how the system had orchestrated it all.

The vision moved to a quick succession of different people giving their blood samples to various entities. Most of them were giving their blood to hospitals and laboratories to be tested for different health reasons.

This was followed by scenes of people of different races, genders and sizes, taking their dental imprints using portable home kits, cutting strands of their hair, and gathering other such biometric identifiers of themselves.

The vision cut to a large array of DNA-tracking and family-tree-tracing websites like heritage.com, ancestry.com, etc. The people from the previous scene were sending their DNA and biometric information for their origins to be traced back for them. This tool was especially popular amongst African Americans.

Then it cut to a black computer screen with AI written on it. The screen changed into an animation of millions of lines of data being processed at high speed, like a matrix.

The AI started pulling information from millions of medical databases all around the world, from private and public hospitals and clinics alike, as well as these ancestry websites.

When it had processed it all, this AI was able to match Jacob's bloodline inside the health databases. As soon as one descendant of the true Hebrews of the Bible was detected, the word 'RESTRICTED' appeared on the screen.

Then I saw millions of people's names being flagged, and the 'RESTRICTED' being applied to their health profiles within the records of private and public hospitals and clinics around the world.

The vision shifted to a scene of a doctor conducting a health check on a patient. The doctor went into his computer to open the patient's medical file. After entering their name and searching for a few seconds, the doctor's computer screen showed 'RESTRICTED'.

The doctor was given no explanation for it, nor any way to bypass that message and see the patient's information regardless of the restriction. The doctor was locked out.

The vision cut to a scene in a pharmacy. After the pharmacist took the prescription paper that was given to them by a black female customer, they saw that it had a certain group of letters, like an acronym, written at the top right of it, signalling to the pharmacist that this was a 'RESTRICTED' person.

The vision continued with the customer getting out of there, feeling so helpless that she almost fainted. It seemed to me that she had fought really hard to get a proper consultation after her profile was 'restricted' at the doctor's office, only to come to the pharmacy and be denied drugs for her treatment.

The last scene was of Nia and Dion, who were now back home. They discussed what happened at the doctor's office and the due date coming up. After realising that there would not be an alternative to this restriction any time soon, they began to consider their home birth options.

AFTERWORD

The Fruit Factory is a call to true Israel and the end times church. It is time for harvest! The Lord Yahshua, the Christ, is sounding the trumpet: only the fruitful will make it.

Here are our top-five recommended proclamations for every reader of The Fruit Factory to get a clear understanding of the times that will preface the Messiah's return, and learn how to endure till the end. Please read them in order, from top to bottom. You won't regret it.

About the author

Elvira is a servant of YHWH the Most High God, who was born again in Christ over 20 years ago and received her call from YHWH to do this work in 2021. She is a writer from the tribe of Judah with interests in law, media, and business. Email mail@thefruitfactory.co to get in touch.

By the way...

'Yahshua' is simply Jesus' name in Hebrew. Various scholars have argued for spellings and/or pronunciations like Yehoshua or Yeshua, which are variations of Joshua, but we prefer to stick with Yahshua as meaning, 'Yah/YHWH saves.'
