PROCLAMATION

YHWH showed me the identity of the person who would bring His people, true Israel, from the nations where they were exiled, back to YHWH-Shammah (Jerusalem's name after the regathering per Ezekiel 48:35).

The dream began with YHWH flashing the image of a young man to me. The picture was static at first, so that I could notice the details.

He had light brown skin, short coarse hair, like wool, with a healthy athletic build. He was wearing a deep blue shirt and holding a microphone. Then it was as if the Father pressed 'play' on this static image, and the young man started speaking into the microphone, preaching his heart out. I did not hear the content of his speech; the vision was muted.

Next, the following scripture notation appeared on top of his head: Isaiah 11:11. It hovered over him, as he passionately spoke into the microphone.

'It shall come to pass in that day that the Lord shall set His hand again the second time to recover the remnant of His people who are left, from Assyria and Egypt, from Pathros and Cush, from Elam and Shinar, from Hamath and the islands of the sea.' —Isaiah 11:11.

The vision then moved to a large stage. There were thousands of people around it, listening to this young man preach. The anointing and power that was flowing out of him was so heavy that I felt it spread through the space all around the room within this dream.

That's where it ended.

The next morning, as I was documenting the dream, I felt strongly in my spirit that I had forgotten a part of it. I prayed to Messiah and asked Him to please help me remember the missing pieces. By His mercy, the rest of the dream came back to me in an open-eyed vision.

I saw this same young man's image on what looked like a large computer screen. His preaching was being broadcast online to millions of people. Unlike the first part in which he was very animated, in this broadcast, he had a very calm demeanour, but that didn't make YHWH's anointing on him less recognisable.

That's where the vision ended, and YHWH added a statement to it.

Thus says YHWH:

'He is going to be My Moses.

He will gather My people back to Me, but he will also speak to and transform non-believers and reinforce the faith of the Gentiles. He will touch all My people in the world.'

Later that morning, whilst I was writing down what I had seen and heard, I pondered about how to describe him in the prophecy entry, and as I reflected in my mind, Yah started to answer my questions.

To my question about his ethnicity, Yah answered, 'He is definitely what you would consider a black man of the tribe of Judah.

To my question about his age, Yah answered, 'He is young.'

To my question about his origin, Yah answered, 'He is neither from Africa nor from America.' This answer came from the fact that after hearing 'black man from the tribe of Judah,' my mind immediately went to those two continents.

Then, Elohim gave me another statement.

Thus says YHWH Elohim:

'I am separating him from the world right now, and I am working on him for this calling.

When he is ready, there will be no wondering about who he is. His authority will be evident, and the anointing upon his life will be very potent. Even the unspiritual will know that this is a different breed of man.'

'On that day the Lord will again raise his hand to recover the remnant that is left of his people, from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea. He will raise a signal for the nations and will assemble the outcasts of Israel and gather the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. The jealousy of Ephraim shall depart; the hostility of Judah shall be cut off; Ephraim shall not be jealous of Judah, and Judah shall not be hostile toward Ephraim. But they shall swoop down on the backs of the Philistines in the west; together they shall plunder the people of the east. They shall put forth their hand against Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites shall obey them. And the Lord will dry up the tongue of the sea of Egypt and will wave his hand over the River with his scorching wind and will split it into seven channels and make a way to cross on foot; so there shall be a highway from Assyria for the remnant that is left of his people, as there was for Israel when they came up from the land of Egypt.’ —Isaiah 11:11-16.

By the way...

'Yahshua' is simply Jesus' name in Hebrew. Various scholars have argued for spellings and/or pronunciations like Yehoshua or Yeshua, which are variations of Joshua, but we prefer to stick with Yahshua as meaning, 'Yah/YHWH saves.'
