PROCLAMATION

YHWH gave me a dream of the nature of the forces that will be coming after His people in these end times.

I was with three friends, sitting at a table that was glued to the wall of a building outside, working on my computer. There were several people having a good time around the open space when, suddenly, a group of armed men who were dressed as Star Wars soldiers [exactly like the banner image of this prophecy] appeared with high-tech guns to find and kill me.

These soldiers appeared out of nowhere as if they were using cloaking technology. One second, it was just us, and the next, it was us and them. No cars drove there. This was clearly alien technology, which is not natural but supernaturally demonic in nature.

People instantly fled the place, including the people I was with. There was a gate opposite the open space where we had been sitting and talking, which was about a hundred meters away. This gate was like the entrance into another dimension where those soldiers could not follow us.

Everyone ran towards that gate, including me, but I realised midway that I had left my computer on the table where I was working. My computer was where all the prophecies and the work that the Lord had given me were. All of my data, my work, my ministry, EVERYTHING.

At this point, the soldiers had not spotted me yet because I was buried in the crowd, but I knew that if I went back to get the computer, not only would they spot me, but I would be only a few meters away from them to be easily shot. The decision was quickly made, and I made a U-turn back to the computer, thinking, 'I know the God I serve.'

I knew that this God that I serve would protect me, especially if I was going back because of His work, His words, and His Kingdom. So I ran as quickly as I could and took the computer. I had just started returning to the gate when they spotted me. Uh oh. I was so close to them that one of them could have stretched their arm and snatched me right there.

FUTURE ARMIES : STAR WARS SOLDIERS

As soon as one of them noticed, he shot at me, POW! It was a straight, clean shot, but something interesting happened: the scene slowed down to veeery slow motion such that my eyes could trace the bullet. I started off on a straight path directly at me, but halfway there, this bullet suddenly changed directions, diverted itself and missed me.

These were skilled soldiers, who were possibly not even human; I was at arm's length from this particular soldier, so he definitely did NOT intentionally miss. It could only have been YHWH Elohim.

When the bullet missed me, I was so excited, I looked at those soldiers and screamed at the top of my lungs, 'I TOLD YOU THAT I KNOW THE GOD I SERVE!!' I was so happy, so proud of my God.

They kept shooting at me, and I kept running away. My friend was at the gate, waving at me and encouraging me to get there quickly. I finally crossed the gate, and the frame of the dream came back to normal speed.

As I crossed, my friend and I instantly disappeared from behind the gate.

There were a few more scenes in the dream that are not important for what YHWH is trying to tell us in this proclamation, so I will end it here.

'Pray that your flight may not be in winter or on a Sabbath. For at that time there will be great suffering, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be. And if those days had not been cut short, no one would be saved, but for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short.' — Matthew 24:20-22.

Friends, we must prepare ourselves for the kind of sorcery [not technology] that is coming into the earth. The warfare against the saints will not be done using natural means or simple human beings, but by otherworldly creatures who will be walking in excessive power.

Seeing people appear and disappear like this will be something to expect. Seeing soldiers appear out of thin air to kill you will be what to expect, and this could be in our homes, too, and without our knowledge.

FUTURE ARMIES : STAR WARS SOLDIERS

Preparing our hearts for these realities is important. Feeding our souls enough of the word of YHWH to be able to command authority or be covered to the point where bullets are dodging us. This work should begin now.

By the way...

'Yahshua' is simply Jesus' name in Hebrew. Various scholars have argued for spellings and/or pronunciations like Yehoshua or Yeshua, which are variations of Joshua, but we prefer to stick with Yahshua as meaning, 'Yah/YHWH saves.'
