PROCLAMATION

The Father gave me a dream about the two categories of people found in the world in these end times. The dream came with its interpretation.

I saw a young girl on her phone, hurrying out of a house. She was running after a bus that she was close to missing. She ran so fast that she knocked things down around her as she made her way to the front gate.

Interestingly, despite the pressing nature of her situation, she wouldn't let go of her phone, keeping it glued to her ear all the way to the end.

When she finally stepped out of the gate, there was a bus waiting right in front of it; the last passenger was getting inside before its imminent departure. My attention was drawn to this passenger.

She was a classy woman, who wore a well-tailored top and skirt set made of heavy, luxurious fabrics. She was calm, poised, and very refined in her demeanour as she walked up the last steps of the bus.

The young girl ran right past this bus as if it was not even there, very absorbed by her phone. The bus took off a few seconds later, as she continued to run straight to the end of her street, where she took a left turn.

As my point of view followed her around, it is here that I realised that this girl was going to another bus that she had been told was the right one for her desired destination. I also understood she was receiving directions from the people on her phone. Their bus was supposed to be just a few meters after the left turn, but when she arrived there, there was nothing.

Instead of stopping to reflect on whether she had made a mistake, she just kept running forward, as directed by her phone correspondents.

She then stepped onto the main road and began to run amongst the cars. She kept running and running until eventually she got hit by a car.

Traffic stopped, and the people exited their cars and surrounded her. They tried to help, but it was too late—she was dead.

Dream interpretation

The bus represents spiritual shelter and guidance in the end times.

The world is full of different ideas of buses; each religion, philosophy and science promising a safe bus to its followers, guaranteeing peace and safety.

‘And this good news of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the world, as a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.’ —Matthew 24:14.

The bus in front of the gate represents the truth, the Gospel of the Kingdom in Christ.

It represents the place where the true end times church of Yahshua the Christ will be guided and guarded for preservation by our Lord and Messiah as the wrath of God is unleashed during YHWH's imminent judgement of the earth and its utter destruction.

The true bus is right there in front of the gate for all to see, but it is always overlooked, even by those who claim to have the truth, that is, to be disciples of Christ.

This dream shows that Yahshua's bus will not be stationed in front of the gate eternally; the time for it to be shut is at hand. This bus is about to take off, and as I write this proclamation, the very last passengers are being let in. Time is running out!

A little sleep, a little slumber, and before we know it, that door will be shut; after which, YHWH's wrath shall crush every person who did not manage to secure their seat on His bus and make it to the stop on time.

‘Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned.’ —John 15:6.

This is a reminder that it does not matter if one thinks they are a devout Christian or the most Hebrew of all the true biblical Hebrews; what qualifies one for a seat on that bus is (1) the presence, and (2) the quality, of the fruit they have produced.

‘Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they will have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city by the gates.’ —Revelation 22:14.

The classy woman represents the mature and prepared Church of Yahshua the Christ. This woman has gone through the Refiner's fire; she has washed her robe by enduring trials and tribulations that are sent to test and refine her faith. She is about to take her seat on that bus after weathering her storms and killing her dragons through undergoing persecution for Christ's name's sake.

The classy woman is not rushing; she is not running with disorientation and distraction because she has prepared herself for departure. She has set her eyes on her destination, and she is ready for what is to come: her Messiah's return.

'But I am afraid that, as the serpent deceived Eve by its cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ. For if someone comes and proclaims another Jesus than the one we proclaimed, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or a different gospel from the one you accepted, you put up with it readily enough.'

–2 Corinthians 11:3-4.

The young girl represents the immature and unprepared Church of these end times, which is running after another Jesus. She has been claiming to follow Christ, but she neither knows Him nor puts His word into practice.

This young girl also represents the confused and lost unsaved person running around from trend to trend, religion to religion, drowning in the sea of spiritual confusion.

The phone glued to her ear represents all the lies and the poison she feeds herself that is not the word of God. She is in love with false prophets, doctrines of devils, doctrines of men, false teachings, media brainwashing, deceptive rhetoric and propaganda in education, science and politics to further satanic agendas. She cherishes ancestor worship, idolatrous customs and traditions, occultism, sorcery, pagan rituals and artefacts, witchcraft, Kemetism, New Age, Catholicism, all the other 'isms', etc.

She is running around, looking for the bus that rulers of darkness have directed her to, except that there is no bus waiting to take her anywhere. It is, and has always been, lies from the pit of hell.

These different ideas of buses that the world has to offer are smoke and mirrors; they can offer neither shelter nor security. There is no bus waiting for the listener at the end of the race.

They tell us, 'Take a left here,' and 'Take a right there,' but both sides are taking us to hell.

Satan has been writing cheques he cannot cash since the beginning of time. YHWH is showing here that the season for us to watch those who have been collecting his empty cheques finally go bankrupt has arrived.

There is no shelter from eternal damnation and the end times wrath of Elohim outside the truth of the Gospel.

The only message that saves is that of the Kingdom of God in Christ Jesus, through repentance of sins and belief in the sacrifice Christ made for us on the cross. There is no way to God but through Him; there is no salvation from darkness without Him. He is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

Fiends, there is no way out of the requirement to live holy according to Yah's word. The only message that can save is the one that preaches a life of holiness and sanctification to walk the narrow path that leads to life and bear fruit in the Father's vineyard.

There is no alternative to Truth but to quit trying to fight Yahshua and submit to His authority. He is the King of kings, Lord of lords, the First and the Last. He who was, is and is to come. No matter the phone we have glued to our ears, if this is not the message that is coming through the line from whoever is speaking to us on the other side, our end shall be as this young girl: death.

Christ provided the only, final, and permanent solution to true life. Trying to find any other way out of our problems is chasing after the wind, exactly as this young girl was doing in this dream, to her demise.

The worst part of this dream, but which captures Mankind's nature oh so well, is that when she realised there was no bus, instead of stopping in her tracks and trying to see if she could catch the other bus that she had just overlooked, she decided to persist.

Her stubbornness ultimately led her to her death because that is all sin and rebellion against YHWH Elohim can do: kill, steal and destroy. Pride and foolishness, the refusal to humble herself and turn away from her old ways to catch the bus she actually did see but overlooked, cost her everything, and ultimately, her life.

‘Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the LORD will come like a thief in the night. When they say, “There is peace and security,” then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape!’ —1 Thessalonians 5: 1-3.

AFTERWORD

The Fruit Factory is a call to true Israel and the end times church. It is time for harvest! The Lord Yahshua, the Christ, is sounding the trumpet: only the fruitful will make it.

By the way...

'Yahshua' is simply Jesus' name in Hebrew. Various scholars have argued for spellings and/or pronunciations like Yehoshua or Yeshua, which are variations of Joshua, but we prefer to stick with Yahshua as meaning, 'Yah/YHWH saves.'
