PROCLAMATION

In the early morning of July 28th, I had a dream of myself at a large banquet. I was attending it as a chef, not a guest. I stood in a small corner of the room, where I had placed the pot of food I had cooked next to a tiny table.

People were going to different tables to serve themselves. Amongst these people was a person I knew, let's call her Mila, an old friend of mine. Knowing in my heart that my dish was tasty and highly nutritious, I wanted my friend to try it and decide for herself what she wanted to eat.

I served a small plate of food from my pot and brought it to Mila. The very sight of me approaching with the plate caused her to throw up. She had not even had a good look at it yet, let alone taken a bite of it.

The dream moved to another scene. I was in the same room, same setting, but instead of food, the banquet was of juices.

Similarly to the first scenes, in this one, I was standing in my little corner. But instead of a pot of food, I had a large juice maker on the table next to me. I made some freshly pressed fruit juice right there in front of everyone and brought it to Mila once more.

'Look, try this. It is fresh and organic, it will be good for you,' I said to her. Thankfully, she didn't throw up before she could give it a try; she was rather enthusiastic this time around, which made me glad. But sadly, that enthusiasm didn't last. Just when she was about to take a sip, she threw up.

The dream came to an end.

In the afternoon of that same day, I was in prayer before the Father, and I had another vision about the same topic.

I was at a certain workplace, a corporate setting. There was a kitchen at the back of the office where people walked in and out, having lunch, getting coffee, refilling their water bottles, etc. Amongst them was a young man, let's call him Mateo, sitting at the kitchen table to eat.

His food was a white paste with no discernible grains, vegetables, or other substantial ingredients; it appeared to be of very poor nutritional value. I came forward with my lunch pack and offered to share my food with him. It was a well-cooked meal, comprised of whole grains, protein, fibre, vitamins, and a tasty sauce.

I filled a plate, nicely presenting the different ingredients, and gave it to him. As soon as he sliced a piece of meat to try to take a bite, he bent sideways and threw up.

This is where the vision ended.

Dream interpretation

'Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tested by the devil. He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterward he was famished. The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread." But he answered, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"" —Matthew 4:1-4.

'He humbled you by letting you hunger, then by feeding you with manna, with which neither you nor your ancestors were acquainted, in order to make you understand that one does not live by bread alone but by every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord.' —Deuteronomy 8:3.

Food in these dreams and visions represents spiritual food. That is the beliefs, teachings, doctrines, and overall knowledge that our souls and spirits feed on to build themselves up.

The fact that the dream was set in a large banquet, full of different food varieties and chefs, means that this is a spiritual marketplace. The banquet represents the myriad of ideologies, religions, and spiritual knowledge available to the world, whether founded in Christ or not.

As a minister of the church, I attended that banquet as a chef, ready to present people with the spiritual food that Christ has put in my mouth to proclaim. My food is YHWH's prophetic word grounded in the unadulterated truth of the Gospel of the Kingdom by the repentance of sins and belief in the Lord Yahshua the Christ.

In the first scene of the dream, the banquet was made up of full-course meals, which represent robust teaching that is meant for the more spiritually mature person. The drinks and juices of the second scene represent more elementary knowledge for the spiritually immature person.

Mila was fine eating from all these sources of food, until I showed up. When she had to come in contact with the truth, she could not stomach it.

'And so, brothers and sisters, I could not speak to you as spiritual people but rather as fleshly, as infants in Christ. I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for solid food. Even now you are still not ready, for you are still fleshly. For as long as there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not fleshly and behaving according to human inclinations?' —1 Corinthians 3:1-3.

Yahshua first sent me to her with solid food, and she threw up whilst I was still several metres away. Still, He did not give up on her. He then sent me to her with something much more palatable: fresh organic fruit juice. She still threw up, unable to put up with it.

Mila's reactions show that she lives a severely carnal life. If something like fruit juice that is sweet to the taste still makes her throw up, it exposes a state of spiritual darkness that rejects anything that is truly grounded in the truth of the word of YHWH. This is the heart of someone who does not want to hear conviction, rebuke or anything that will not please her own flesh.

In the vision, the workplace environment represents being a minister of the YHWH's word in active life, compared to a traditionally religious space (represented earlier by the banquet). That means preaching the message of Christ and making disciples in one's business or job; ministering to colleagues, someone sitting next to you on the bus or train, to family and friends, etc.

Mateo was attached to his personal beliefs, which were represented by his lunch plate. He was fine eating something that had no nutritional value; his plate was as bland as ever.

Yahshua sent me to him with a copious meal. Despite the meal's appealing presentation, with the right ingredients, meats and sauces, Mateo could not take a full bite of it. To his credit, unlike Mila, he did want to give it a try right from the beginning, but when it was time to fight his flesh and accept the conviction, pruning and cleansing that comes with the word of YHWH, he just couldn't do it.

In the end, because light has no fellowship with darkness, when it was time to allow the light of the gospel and Yah's word to shine on the darkness inside them and root it out, neither Mila nor Mateo was willing to receive it.

What the church doesn't teach today anymore is that being a true disciple of Christ is very costly. It requires one to overcome one's own desires, picking up one's cross to follow Christ. What YHWH is showing in this dream and vision is that, unfortunately, most people today are not willing to confess their sins, repent, and accept Yahshua in His true form of uncompromising pure Messiah.

Thus says YHWH:

'True Israel and the church in their current state are of the world.

They are allergic to the truth. They are filled with so much darkness and lies that when the truth presents itself to them, they cannot take it. They cannot accept it. They are unable to digest it.

They would rather continue to eat their filth and call you false. They would rather cling to the evildoers who feed them faeces every day; a diluted, false and deadly Gospel devoid of truth, devoid of repentance, devoid of holiness and devoid of life.

This is how they will come here and leave: having to vomit because there is no truth found in them. They are like their father, the devil.

I am talking to you now, who will come here and say that 'You can't put your finger on why your spirit rejected what was written here.' Allow Me, the Almighty, to put My finger on it on your behalf.

It is your darkness, your filth, your unrighteousness, your unholiness, your doctrines of devils and all the defiled media you consume every day, all the sin you live in and defend. That is what is disturbing you, not what My messenger proclaims here by My anointing and appointment of her.

You are allergic to the truth. What can I do for you?

You are the filthy one. Your food is the corrupt one. You are the one vomiting. This source, this bread, this oil is pure. You are the evildoer.

I do not want to hear it. Keep your slanderous commentary, and most definitely save your crocodile tears for when everything that has been written here comes to pass, and it is too late for you to change course.

I will not hear it. I am not moved. You have been warned.

I, YHWH Elohim, the Almighty Holy One of Israel, have spoken, and so it shall be.'

'In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favorable or unfavorable; convince, rebuke, and encourage with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound teaching, but, having their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, be sober in everything, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.' —2 Timothy 4:1-5.

'You then, my child, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus, and what you have heard from me through many witnesses entrust to faithful people who will be able to teach others as well. Share in suffering like a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No one serving in the army gets entangled in everyday affairs; the soldier's aim is to please the enlisting officer. And in the case of an athlete, no one is crowned without competing according to the rules. It is the farmer who does the work who ought to have the first share of the crops. Think over what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in all things.

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure:

If we have died with him, we will also live with him;
if we endure, we will also reign with him;
if we deny him, he will also deny us;
if we are faithless, he remains faithful—
he cannot deny himself.' — 2 Timothy 2:1-13.

By the way...

'Yahshua' is simply Jesus' name in Hebrew. Various scholars have argued for spellings and/or pronunciations like Yehoshua or Yeshua, which are variations of Joshua, but we prefer to stick with Yahshua as meaning, 'Yah/YHWH saves.'
