PROCLAMATION

I was put in the skin of an anonymous Christian, let's call her Arlet, and I was listening to someone preach. Arlet didn't know what was behind this preaching, or its spiritual source, but she enjoyed it; it sounded good to her.

Then, another voice of a truly called prophet of YHWH started resounding at a distance. This new voice was saying something different, and Arlet knew that what was being prophesied was the truth. She could even see these prophetic words appear to her, as if a vision from afar.

Arlet had to stand up and move closer to hear more of this truth, but she didn't want to because it would mean forfeiting her comfort zone and the pleasing feeling she was getting from what they had been listening to so far. Arlet enjoyed what she had been consuming too much, much more than what came from the new voice, even though she knew that what was proclaimed afar was true and what she was listening to was false.

Thus says YHWH:

'It is hard to change sides when you are in error, when you love your error. That is why many will fall away and abandon the faith.

The work necessary to accept the truth is too intense, not fun enough, and not something anyone else can do for someone; it is an inside job. This makes it very inconvenient, and today's church is addicted to her conveniences.

This is why she will be trimmed down and purged, cleansed and made pure once more. What will be left of her will be true.

I, YHWH Elohim, will surely perform this. Amen.'

After this, I had a vision of another Christian listening to a teaching. What he was listening to transformed into the appearance of a meal. It was rotten, but it found a way to present itself to him as his favourite food, and he was devouring it with a lot of passion.

This is where the visions ended.

These visions fit what YHWH showed me in the last proclamation. He is making me proclaim it again to stress this point: too much filth is being poured out into people's souls in the church.

The gospel has been corrupted, its message polluted, and the vast majority of believers are too far gone in their comfort and love for lies and filth. They do not want to get out of the pit of spiritual darkness because they are not willing to pay the price of sacrifice and suffering for Christ.

Not only is there a love for lies, but there is a rejection of the truth. The church's leaders are sorcerers and witches who openly serve Satan, but their congregations act like they can't see it. For example, the false religion called Catholicism, which covers more than half the population of so-called 'Christians' in the billions, is flat-out open occultism.

There is no shame, no fear, no restraint in the wickedness of the church and YHWH says that every person who has allowed their soul to be deceived in this way will harvest the full wages of their complacency. The church will be thoroughly purged, heavily stricken by YHWH's own hand, as the Lord of the harvest rises to perform His end-times harvest of the earth.

He who has ears, let him hear.

'Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.'—2 Thessalonians 2:3-4.

'You must understand this, that in the last days distressing times will come. For people will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, unfeeling, implacable, slanderers, profligates, brutes, haters of good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, holding to the outward form of godliness but denying its power.

Avoid them! For among them are those who make their way into households and captivate immature women, overwhelmed by their sins and swayed by all kinds of desires, who are always studying yet never able to recognize truth.

As Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these people, of corrupt mind and counterfeit faith, also oppose the truth. But they will not make much progress because, as in the case of those two men, their folly will become plain to everyone.' —2 Timothy 3:1-9.

By the way...

'Yahshua' is simply Jesus' name in Hebrew. Various scholars have argued for spellings and/or pronunciations like Yehoshua or Yeshua, which are variations of Joshua, but we prefer to stick with Yahshua as meaning, 'Yah/YHWH saves.'
