

Proclamation #134

HEART OF FLESH – VOLUME 2

The Fall of Japan

The Fruit

The Fruit Factory is a call to True Israel and the End Times Church: It is time for harvest! The Lord Jesus Christ is sounding the trumpet! Only the fruitful will make it.

Isaiah 24:4

‘The earth dries up and withers, the world languishes and withers, the heavens languish with the earth.’

Isaiah 24:4 is the Scripture given to me by YHWH to describe the Fall of Japan. The following statement followed it:

Thus says the YHWH Elohim, He who is, who was, and is to come:

‘Japan has brought this upon itself because of its extreme idolatry. They worship trees, forests, waters and objects made with their own hands. Necromancy is a part and parcel of their daily lives.

They idolise and promote Satan’s demonic media. They idolise mangas and even dress up as demons and other devilish Manga characters. They live for their anime that are visual representations of every spiritual ideology My word forbids. They have brought this curse upon their own land. They have only themselves to blame.

I repeatedly give mankind chances to redeem themselves and turn away from their evil ways. Japan has been idolatrous from the beginning, yet I have allowed her to prosper. I have made it so that such a small nation rivals those who have ten times her population size.

This future is a kindness I am doing to Japan; it is not a judgment. I am merely allowing her to harvest a fraction of the consequences of her own wickedness because I want that next time I call out to her, she will finally hear Me and answer.'

'The earth is defiled by its people; they have disobeyed the laws, violated the statutes and broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore a curse consumes the earth; its people must bear their guilt. Therefore earth's inhabitants are burned up, and very few are left.' —Isaiah 24:5-6.

Thus says YHWH, Creator of the heavens and the earth:

'The earth is spitting you out because of your trespassing, Japan. These consequences are, in fact, so much lighter than what you deserve. I have lightened your load because of My people, true Israel, who still are in your midst. I have also lightened your load because the Gospel of Salvation in the Messiah will be preached all over your land, and you will finally see the light.

The Philadelphia church of the end times will be in Japan; revival will come to Japan. Japan will be so shaken by these calamities that it will be forced into humility of heart. Finally, when I, YHWH, will speak, Japan will listen because she will realise that her 500 different false idols and ancestral shrines were not able to save her. She will despise her lying manga and anime that have been instrumental in bringing her to her demise.

True Israel in Japan will remember who they are; that they are My people, and they will be reconciled to Me, their King. This time, their repentance will be true, and it will endure till the end.

I, YHWH, watch. I patiently wait. I am so patient that the inhabitants of the world think I do not exist, but they are wrong. There is nothing that happens on the earth that escapes My eyes, and now we have arrived at the season for the earth to express her frustration with its inhabitants.

All desolations are determined.

I, YHWH, shall balance the scales.

I, YHWH, have spoken and My word shall not return to me void.'

Please remember that all the end times events of the world have been meticulously planned by the Messiah Himself, who is preparing us, inhabitants of the earth, for His glorious return. Proclamation #55 titled 'Desolations Are Determined' greatly expounds on this reality; I would advise the readers to familiarise themselves with its contents.

I will now narrate everything that YHWH dictated to me in the afternoon of June 24, 2025, about the trials and tribulations that this nation will endure, originally given to me as a chronicle. But during my transcription of the text from my paper notebook onto my electronic device, the Most High asked me to keep it compressed into a single proclamation.

Hear the word of YHWH to Japan as she enters her season of desolation.

1. Natural disasters

YHWH told me that Japan will be hit by a series of earthquakes that will intensify one after the other, with closer intervals between each. It will become so recurrent and random that the whole country will be on permanent high alert.

Japan will also experience, not one but two, earthquakes that will reach Level 10, triggering tsunamis of similar magnitude. Level 10 is higher than the single earthquake they experienced in 2011, which has historically been their most severe natural hazard so far. YHWH made it clear that whatever earthquakes the country has lived through in the past will not compare to what is coming. Whatever earthquakes they are reporting now will not compare to it.

These natural disasters will ravage about a quarter of Japan's landscape, causing mass displacement of people. They will also result in other dangerous (and deadly) consequences from the nuclear power plants that will be affected in certain regions.

YHWH said that this is set to happen in the current season of time, not in a far future, which means that we could all wake up to this tomorrow.

Isaiah 24:4 is coming to Japan, and we will all be alive and able to see and witness it. The whole world will languish and mourn with and for Japan. The heavens will also mourn for Japan because YHWH cares about this nation. But Japan's future is not only inevitable, but it is also necessary—as YHWH explained in His statement at the beginning of this proclamation.

2. Riots and political upheavals

YHWH also revealed that right after the global financial crash, Japan's citizens will explode with rage at their failed government and rulership systems. There will be widespread outrage that will alter the very fabric of the nation at its core.

The Father explained to me that the Japanese people live in a culture that is deeply politically correct and filled with social decorum. From what He explained to me, the Japanese are taught from birth to suppress their feelings and emotions in general, but this is especially important when it comes to those older than you and authority figures, whether at home, at work, or in the government.

YHWH said that Japan is a country that lives by the social law of upholding a facade that is always composed, so composed that someone should almost be timid in how they present themselves. The Japanese are highly deferential people in their way of life. However, the financial crash will be the incident that will cause the Japanese to break all those rules.

The Father further revealed that Japan has had at least two decades of dormant economic growth during which individuals have not really seen their lives improve despite their hard work. The people feel like they are in a permanently stagnant state. This has caused an increasing and compounding inner rage that its citizens have been keeping under control through their self-regulating norms of propriety and social decorum.

No more.

The whole country will experience explosive riots of concealed decade-long inner rage. All of that will be poured out with no restraint. It will start as anger against the government, but will rapidly turn into...

3. Civil war

First, there will be civil conflict between different classes: the rich or elite on one side, the poor or less rich on the other.

Furthermore, there will be civil war between those who support the government on one side and those who do not on the other. This conflict will last longer—several months. During those months, going outside on the street in Japan will be dangerous. The country will also be highly militarised, as the government tries to keep its vengeful population under control.

4. Nation-wide strikes

After the worldwide financial crash, Japan's economy will be heavily hit, but it is the workers' strikes that will cause the already-shaken economy to shut down. People will strike across all industries, refusing to go to work.

Any Japanese reading this probably thinks that what YHWH is saying is impossible, but it is, and it will happen. Japanese natives will probably not believe this because YHWH has made me understand that Japan is a place where people work at a company from the time they graduate to the time they die. Many people die because of overworking themselves. The concept of paid overtime does not exist in Japan.

From an early age, people are taught that they basically exist to be good employees and owe their employers their livelihoods. This thing people in the West babble over, write books about, and hold extravagant campaigns and conferences over called 'work-life balance,' does not exist in Japan.

It is so common in Japan to commit suicide or have strokes, seizures and other such sudden-death experiences because of overwork that it has its own name there: Karoshi. Working one hundred hours of unpaid overtime is a common occurrence in everyday life in Japan.

It's hard to imagine that such a country, whose employees are so devoted to their employers that they lose their lives, will go through nationwide strikes. But yes, it will happen.

YHWH said that writers, actors and those in the creative arts will stop working and their strike will last for at least a few years. Manga writers, artists and Mangakas (artists/writer combo); authors of light novels and other works of literature; directors, animators, storyboard artists, and other such professionals in the anime industry. They will all go on strike for years.

Civil workers and other bureaucrats who work for the government will go on strike, too, as will normal company employees. Taxi men, train and bus drivers; grocery store workers... Everyone!

The Japanese will slam their fists on the table against their failing government and economy. They will revolt against modern-day slavery in their work environments. YHWH said that these people are tired of their nation's status quo, although they do not dare say it aloud for now, but their anger will be exacerbated by the economic crisis and failed governance. They will prefer to stay at home—FOR YEARS—until they actually see radical changes take place.

5. Governmental unrest and the rise of an anointed leader

YHWH revealed that the government will also go through several shake-ups, aside from the resistance they will be facing from the population, including a fair share of scandals amongst its leaders.

The country will go through a season of having many Prime Ministers in office, only to be thrown out shortly thereafter. This will remain the case until one man takes over and brings the change the people want and the nation needs. YHWH has not revealed this person's identity to me, but it is under his leadership that the country will calm down and the economy will slowly resume. People start picking back up their jobs at a normal rate.

YHWH made it clear that this leader has been chosen and anointed by Him to bring Japan back up on its feet. He will fight the beast system and stay in power for a long time. YHWH said that this man would be like a sort of Emperor, and the Lord would be the One upholding him there.

YAHSHUA

'Yahshua' is simply Jesus' name in Hebrew. Scholars have argued for various spellings and pronunciations, but we prefer to stick with 'Yahshua' as meaning, 'Yah/YHWH saves.' He is the Messiah, the Christ. He is our King and the Foundation of this ministry. We call Him 'Lord' and 'Saviour.'
